Team workbook · for everyone in the room

Form your team

Six conversations every team needs, in any order, captured on one canvas.

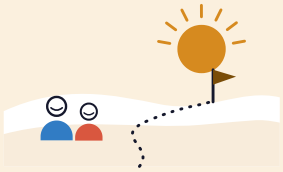

Why · Who · Rhythm · Decisions · Values · Evolve

By Michael Heider · formyourteam.dk

How to use this team workbook

1. Pick a conversation. Start where your team needs it most. The order is up to you.
2. Read the key questions out loud. They frame what the conversation is for.
3. Run the exercise. Each one has steps a facilitator can read out, and a worksheet to write on.
4. Capture what you agree on the Team Canvas at the back of this workbook.
5. Come back to it whenever someone joins or leaves, the purpose shifts or responsibilities change.

The six conversations

Why

Why are we here?

Purpose, beneficiaries and a shared picture of success.

Who

Who are we?

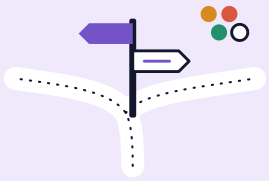

Strengths, working preferences and personal connection.

Rhythm

How do we work?

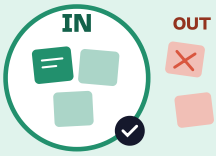

The team's practical operating rhythm.

Decisions

How do we make decisions?

Clarity about autonomy, participation and accountability.

Values

How do we want to be together?

A practical team contract.

Evolve

How do we learn and reform?

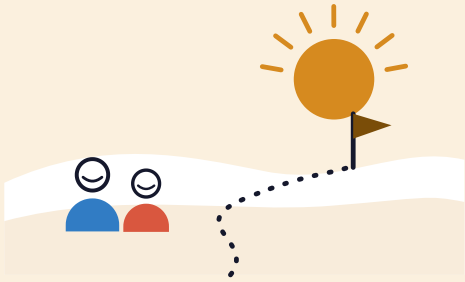

Keep the team canvas alive.

Running the session? Get the free facilitator playbook at formyourteam.dk/playbook: how to prepare, what to say and what to do when it gets tricky. Prefer working on screen? The same exercises run at formyourteam.dk.

Conversation 1 · Why

Why are we here?

Purpose, beneficiaries and a shared picture of success.

Key questions

1. Who benefits from our work?
2. What difference should the team make for them?
3. What would meaningful success look like?

The exercises

Explain it to a friend

Pairs, then whole team · 35 min

Find plain, human words for why the team exists, before anyone writes a mission statement.

In three years' time…

Individual, then whole team · 40 min

Agree one picture of success that feels true to everyone, and the early signs that it is happening.

Notes from the conversation

Goes on your Team Canvas: Our purpose · Our future

Explain it to a friend

Why are we here? · Pairs, then whole team · 35 min

Find plain, human words for why the team exists, before anyone writes a mission statement.

How to run it

1. In pairs, imagine explaining the team's reason for being to a friend over dinner. Speak naturally and avoid organisational language.
2. The listener does not correct or debate. They capture phrases that feel clear, human and meaningful.
3. Switch roles, then compare what was consistent and what was different.
4. Use the strongest language to create a shared purpose statement.

Worksheet

We exist to…

We do this for…

We do this by…

In three years' time...

Why are we here? · Individual, then whole team · 40 min

Agree one picture of success that feels true to everyone, and the early signs that it is happening.

How to run it

1. Each person completes: "In three years' time, this team will have..." Create two or three versions individually.
2. Share without discussion and group similar ideas.
3. Vote for the statement that most unites the team and feels true, not merely the most ambitious.
4. Refine it together and identify two or three signs that would show it is becoming real.

Worksheet

In three years' time, this team will have...

We will know this is becoming real when...

Conversation 2 · Who

Who are we?

Strengths, working preferences and personal connection.

Key questions

1. What does each person bring?
2. How do we each work at our best?
3. What should teammates know about us beyond our role?

The exercises

The story behind me

Whole team · 4–5 min per person

Build personal connection through one small, chosen story each.

Personal user manual

Individual, then share in pairs · 25 min

Make working preferences explicit, so teammates don't have to guess.

Skills marketplace

Individual, then whole team · 40 min

See what the team can offer each other and where it wants to grow.

Goes on your Team Canvas: Our people

The story behind me

Who are we? · Whole team · 4–5 min per person

Build personal connection through one small, chosen story each.

How to run it

1. Each person brings one photograph or object that says something important about them.
2. They tell the story behind it and why they chose it.
3. Listeners ask curious questions without analysing or interpreting the story.

Nothing to fill in here. This is about getting to know each other and building trust before the next exercises.

Nothing to write down here. Listen, ask one curious question, and get to know each other.

Personal user manual

Who are we? · Individual, then share in pairs · 25 min

Make working preferences explicit, so teammates don't have to guess.

How to run it

1. Each person completes their own card on their own, in their own words.
2. Share in pairs. The listener asks one question to understand better, not to challenge.
3. Bring one surprising or useful insight back to the whole team.

Worksheet

You get the best from me when…

I struggle when…

I prefer feedback that…

Under pressure I may…

Some of my quirks are…

You can rely on me for…

Skills marketplace

Who are we? · Individual, then whole team · 40 min

See what the team can offer each other and where it wants to grow.

How to run it

1. Each person fills in their own stall: three things they can offer the team, and one thing they want to grow in.
2. Go round the room. Each person reads their stall out loud in a minute or two.
3. Look at who could learn from whom, and agree one pairing to try in the next few weeks.

Worksheet

I can offer… (1)

I can offer… (2)

I can offer… (3)

I want to grow in…

Conversation 3 · Rhythm

How do we work?

The team's practical operating rhythm.

Key questions

1. When do we plan, make and review?
2. Which meetings and habits actually help us, and which can go?
3. What should we do together, and what can happen on our own time?

The exercise

Draw your team's loop

Whole team, at a whiteboard · 40 min

Agree a simple rhythm for planning, making and reviewing.

Notes from the conversation

Goes on your Team Canvas: Our rhythm

Draw your team's loop

How do we work? · Whole team, at a whiteboard · 40 min

Agree a simple rhythm for planning, making and reviewing.

How to run it

1. Draw a loop: plan → make → review → back to plan.
2. Put the meetings and habits you already have on the loop. Keep what helps, drop what doesn't.
3. For each of the three moments, agree when and how it happens, and write it above.
4. Try the rhythm for one working cycle, then adjust it together.

Worksheet

When do we plan?

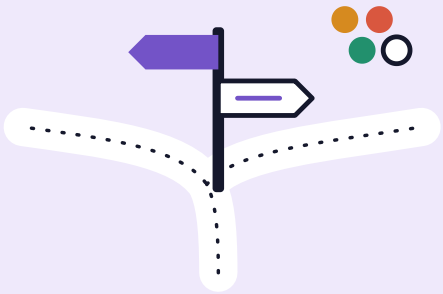

When do we make?

When do we review?

Conversation 4 · Decisions

How do we make decisions?

Clarity about autonomy, participation and accountability.

Key questions

1. Which decisions can individuals make?
2. Which decisions need input or shared ownership?
3. Which ways of deciding could we try?

The exercise

Choose how to decide

Whole team · 40 min

Pick one important decision you make often, and choose a way to make it next time.

Notes from the conversation

Goes on your Team Canvas: Our decision making

Choose how to decide

How do we make decisions? · Whole team · 40 min

Pick one important decision you make often, and choose a way to make it next time.

How to run it

1. Each person names decisions that come up again and again. Agree on one that matters to the team.
2. Read the twelve ways to decide together. Ask what this decision needs: narrowing options, speed, everyone on board, or a clear final say.
3. Choose one way and try it the next few times the decision comes up.
4. Talk about how it felt, and whether to keep it or try another.

Twelve ways to decide

Narrow down options

Dot voting A long list of ideas needs a shortlist, fast.

Multi-voting One round of votes is too scattered to show a favourite.

Scoring matrix Every option has its own trade-offs.

Decide quickly

Majority vote There are two options and either would work.

Plurality There are several options and no time for more rounds.

Authority One person is accountable for the outcome.

Bring everyone along

Fist to five People seem to agree, but you can't tell if they really do.

Consensus Everyone needs to support the decision to carry it out.

Consent You need to move on, even if it isn't everyone's first choice.

Settle who has the final say

Supermajority A big decision needs more than a narrow win.

Unanimity Every person must actively agree before you move.

Delegation The whole team doesn't need to weigh in every time.

Worksheet

A decision we make often

The way we'll try to decide

Twelve ways to decide

Choose the way before the discussion starts. Ask what this decision needs most: narrowing many options, speed, everyone on board, or a clear final say. Then pick one way from that group and write it on the canvas.

Narrow down options

Dot voting

How it works: Everyone places a few dots in one round. Then talk about the options at the top.

Use it when: A long list of ideas needs a shortlist, fast.

Watch out: Popular isn't always right. Discuss the top options before you decide.

Multi-voting

How it works: Vote in rounds and drop the weakest option each time, until a shortlist remains.

Use it when: One round of votes is too scattered to show a favourite.

Watch out: It takes longer. Agree the number of rounds up front.

Scoring matrix

How it works: Rate each option against three to five agreed criteria, then compare totals and trade-offs.

Use it when: Every option has its own trade-offs.

Watch out: Agree the criteria before scoring, or people choose criteria that fit their favourite.

Decide quickly

Majority vote

How it works: One vote each. The option with more than half of the votes wins.

Use it when: There are two options and either would work.

Watch out: The losing side may not commit. Only use it when both options are acceptable.

Plurality

How it works: One vote each. The option with the most votes wins, even below half.

Use it when: There are several options and no time for more rounds.

Watch out: The winner may have less than half the room behind it.

Authority

How it works: One person hears from the people affected, then decides and explains why.

Use it when: One person is accountable for the outcome.

Watch out: Say up front that one person decides, and explain the decision afterwards.

Bring everyone along

Fist to five

How it works: Everyone shows zero to five fingers at the same time. Ask the lowest: what would raise your score by one?

Use it when: People seem to agree, but you can't tell if they really do.

Watch out: Low scores need a conversation, not a new vote.

Consensus

How it works: Share a proposal, listen to concerns, adapt it, and check that everyone can back it.

Use it when: Everyone needs to support the decision to carry it out.

Watch out: Slow, and the most cautious person can block. Save it for decisions everyone must carry.

Consent

How it works: Ask for serious reasons not to try it. Resolve the valid objections, then go ahead.

Use it when: You need to move on, even if it isn't everyone's first choice.

Watch out: An objection needs a reason, a risk or harm, not just a preference.

Settle who has the final say

Supermajority

How it works: Agree a threshold, such as 75%, before voting. Go ahead only if you reach it.

Use it when: A big decision needs more than a narrow win.

Watch out: Set the threshold before the vote, never after.

Unanimity

How it works: Each person gives a clear yes or no. A single no sends the proposal back.

Use it when: Every person must actively agree before you move.

Watch out: One person can stop everything. Use it rarely.

Delegation

How it works: Choose who decides, and agree their mandate, limits and deadline.

Use it when: The whole team doesn't need to weigh in every time.

Watch out: Write the mandate down, and don't overrule the person afterwards.

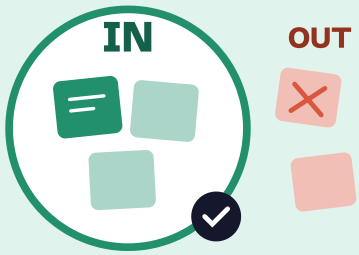

Combine them: narrow down with dot voting, then decide by consent. Whatever you choose, agree who decides, who is asked first, and who is told afterwards.

© Michael Heider · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Conversation 5 · Values

How do we want to be together?

A practical team contract.

Key questions

1. What behaviour helps us do our best work?
2. What behaviour is not acceptable in this team?
3. How will we hold ourselves and each other accountable?

The exercise

The two-circle team contract

Whole team · 60 min

Agree, in plain words, the behaviours that belong in this team and the ones that don't.

Notes from the conversation

Goes on your Team Canvas: Our team values

The two-circle team contract

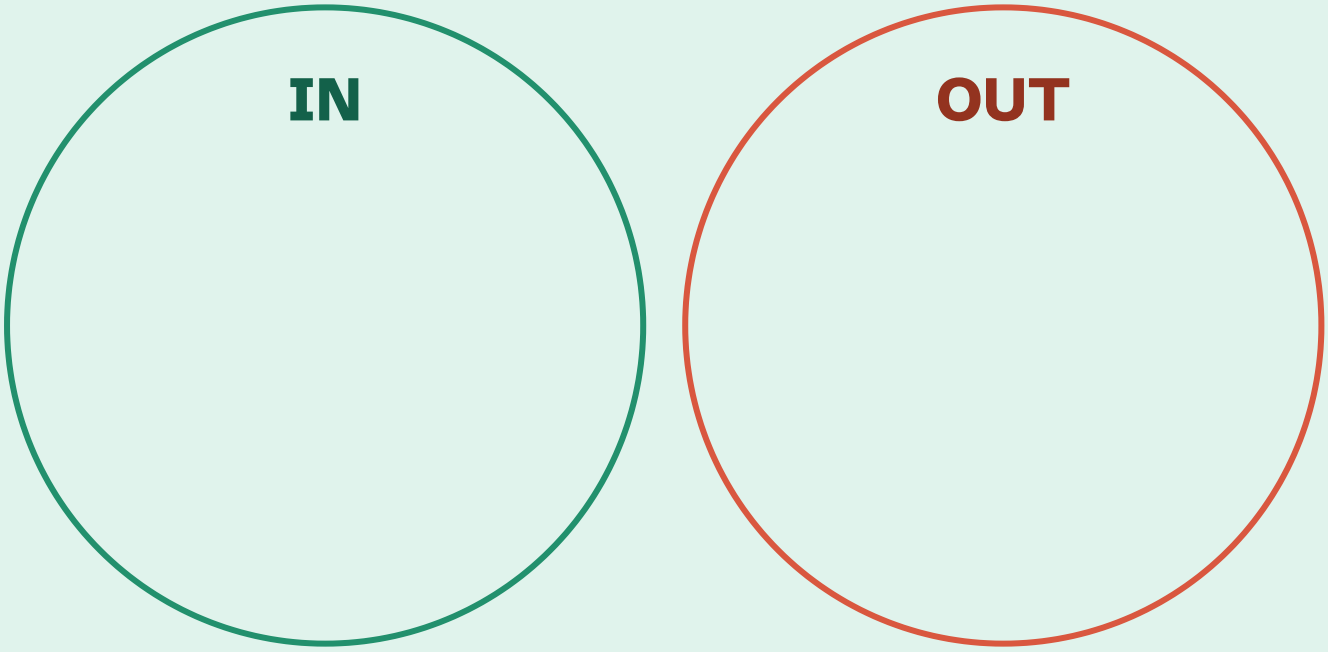

How do we want to be together? · Whole team · 60 min

Agree, in plain words, the behaviours that belong in this team and the ones that don't.

How to run it

1. Draw two large circles and label them IN and OUT.
2. Add behaviours to IN that the team wants to practise and protect.
3. Add behaviours to OUT that undermine trust, inclusion or good work.
4. Talk them through, combine similar ones, and rewrite them as things someone could actually see.

Worksheet

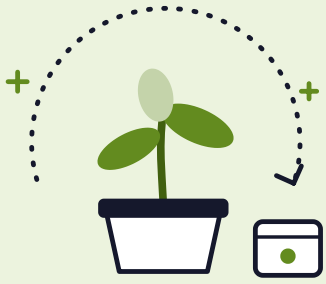

When an agreement is broken, we...

Conversation 6 · Evolve

How do we learn and reform?

Keep the team canvas alive.

Key questions

1. What should we protect?
2. What is no longer serving the team?
3. What change should trigger a team reset?

The exercise

Keep / Change / Try

Whole team · 40 min

Decide what to protect, what to let go and what small experiment to run next.

Notes from the conversation

Goes on your Team Canvas: Our next evolution

Keep / Change / Try

How do we learn and reform? · Whole team · 40 min

Decide what to protect, what to let go and what small experiment to run next.

How to run it

1. Keep: What about this team should we protect?
2. Change: What is no longer helping us?
3. Try: What small experiment will we run next?
4. Agree what should make you sit down with the canvas again, for example someone joining or leaving, or the purpose changing.

Worksheet

Keep: what should we protect?

Change: what is no longer helping us?

Try: what small experiment will we run next?

We will reset the canvas when...

Our Team Canvas

Team _____ Date _____

Our purpose

Why do we exist?
Who do we do this for, and how?

Our future

What does success look like in three years?
How will we know it is becoming real?

Our people

What does each person bring?
What do we want to develop?
How do we each work at our best?

Our rhythm

When do we plan, make and review?
What do we do together, and what on our own time?

Our decision making

Which decision do we make often?
Which way of deciding will we try?

Our team values

What behaviour helps us do our best work (IN), and what is not acceptable (OUT)?

IN

OUT

Our next evolution

What will we keep, change and try?
What would make us reset this canvas?