TEMPLATE 1

The invitation

Send it a week before. Keep it short and human, with no hidden agenda.

Subject: Two hours on how we work together

Hi everyone,

We've been busy delivering, and we've never really talked about how we want to work together. I'd like us to spend [two hours] on that, on [date] in [room / link].

We'll start with one question: [e.g. Why are we here, as a team?]
By the end, we'll have [e.g. a first version of our purpose, in our own words].

No preparation needed, just come curious. If you like, watch this two-minute intro first: formyourteam.dk

The follow-up

Send it within a day of the session.

Subject: What we agreed on [date]

Hi everyone,

Thank you for [the session on ...]. Here's what we agreed, so we can all find it:

What we agreed
· [agreement]
· [agreement]

Next steps
· [who] will [what] by [when]

The canvas is here: [link or where it hangs]
We'll look at it again on [date].

TEMPLATE 3

Decision log

Write decisions down when you make them. It ends a lot of “who decided this?” before it starts.

DATE	DECISION	WHO DECIDED	HOW	WHY

How: authority · consent · consensus · majority · delegation · dot voting · fist to five · … (see “Twelve ways to decide” in the workbook). Reopen a decision only with new information.

TEMPLATE 4

Check-in and check-out cards

Print, cut along the lines, and pick one at the start and end of a session.

CHECK-IN In one word: how do you arrive today?	CHECK-IN What's one thing that went well this week?	CHECK-IN What do you need from this session?
CHECK-IN Something people here might not know about you	CHECK-IN A moment this team was at its best	CHECK-IN What's on your mind that we should know?
CHECK-OUT What do you take with you?	CHECK-OUT One word for how you leave	CHECK-OUT What will you do differently tomorrow?

More check-out cards

CHECK-OUT What surprised you today?	CHECK-OUT What should we not forget?	CHECK-OUT What are you grateful for in this group?
GROUND RULE phones away	GROUND RULE listen to understand, not to reply	GROUND RULE share what you're comfortable with

TEMPLATE 5

Our team contract

Five to eight behaviours someone could actually see. Start each with a verb.

TEMPLATE 6

Experiment card

From Keep / Change / Try. Small and concrete: not “communicate better”, but “for four weeks, we end every meeting by writing down who does what”.
